

RULE I6

Pensionable service

Rule I6 explains how a period of service as a serviceman will count as service with a fire and rescue authority.

Counting of service

Rule I6 states that for the purposes of Rule F2(1) a serviceman is treated as having continued in employment with his/her fire and rescue authority during his/her forces period.

Rule F2(1) explains what periods of service may count as pensionable service for the FPS.

See the explanation of Rule I1 for the meaning of “serviceman” and “forces period”.
